Business units of the WEPA Group under new management

Newly appointed member of the Management Board Menno Oosterhoff heads WEPA Business Unit Consumer – Andreas Kregel heads Business Unit Professional

The Management Board of the WEPA Group, headed by CEO Martin Kregel, has defined new leadership for the business units.

Menno Oosterhoff has assumed management of the Business Unit Consumer as its CEO, and has also been appointed by the Supervisory Board of the WEPA Group as a member of the Management Board of the WEPA Group. As CEO of the Business Unit Consumer, he assumes overall responsibility for the business unit and its further development together with his team.

Martin Kregel, CEO of the WEPA Group: "I'm delighted to welcome Menno Oosterhoff to the team of the Management Board as CEO of the Business Unit Consumer. Based on his experience in the consumer goods industry and the international team, he will successfully further develop the Business Unit Consumer in a customer-oriented and market-oriented manner – in line with the Group strategy of our family business."

Andreas Kregel has been appointed CEO of the Business Unit Professional. He assumes overall responsibility together with the established management team of the Business Unit Professional. Andreas Kregel has been a member of the Management Board of the WEPA Group since 2021, most recently as Chief Strategy Officer. In addition to his role as CEO of the Business Unit Professional, he will continue to be responsible for the activities of the Business Unit New Business Areas.

Dr Hans-Joachim Körber, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of the WEPA Group: "With their market- and customer-oriented approach, Menno Oosterhoff and Andreas Kregel will continue to successfully drive forward the strategic development of the business units together with their teams, particularly in these challenging times."

The Management Board of the WEPA Group now consists of six members: Martin Kregel, Harm Bergmann-Kramer, Ralph Dihlmann, Andreas Kregel, Menno Oosterhoff and Dr Hendrik Otto.
